DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action acknowledges the applicant's amendment submitted 11 April 2006. Claims 1-12 are pending in the application. Claims 7-12 are newly presented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lewis (US 6,070,723) in view of Sharpe (US 5,570,856).

Claim 1: In interpreting the claim language broadly, it is noted that as claimed, the lip extends around the certain sections, and not necessarily the projections or grooves located on a portion of the lip. Accordingly, Lewis discloses a package 30 comprising an upper case 38 formed of an upper section 32 and a lower section 70 and provided with an upper lip 74; a lower case 36 provided with a lower lip 54 and defining a receiving space 50; wherein the upper and lower sections of the upper case are connected by hinge 82; wherein the upper lip of the lower section and the lower lip are clamped to each other continuously around the lower section. Lewis merely lacks the clamping groove and projection on the lip.

Sharpe discloses a package 10' with the lower lip 26 provided with a first clamped groove 38a and the upper lip of the upper section provided with a first clamping projection 102a. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the package of Lewis with clamping grooves and projections as taught by Sharpe in order to maintain the package in the open and closed positions.

Claim 2: Lewis discloses specification-holding noses 66.

Claim 3 and 5: Lewis discloses at least one mark 128.

Claims 4 and 6: Sharpe discloses second clamping projection 102b and second clamped groove 38b.

Claims 7 and 8: Lewis discloses wiper blade 34.

Claims 9 and 10: Sharpe teaches the overlying upper and lower sections (see Figure 8).

Claims 11 and 12: Sharpe discloses the projections and grooves on opposite sides of the lip of the upper case (see Figure 8).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
